When we approached the Shore, we were followed by great Numbers of Men on Horſe-back; and in the Evening we anchored off Cape Virgin Mary; in the Morning there were upon the Beach near three hundred Patagonians hollowing to us. The Captain went on Shore with three Boats manned and armed; and, to be ſure of their Height, he carried a Standard on Shore, and meaſured ſeveral of them, and found them to be about ſeven Feet high. The Captain brought five of them on board, and gave them Victuals and Drink, and Ribbons, Beads, and other Things. They are well proportioned to their Height; their Horſes are about the ſame Size with ours; and they have Cane Spurs and Thong Whips. Their Cloathing is the Skins of wild Beaſts. They ſeemed very much pleaſed, and hallooed us a great way through the Straits. On the 29th of December we arrived at this Place; it is a deſolate Spot; nothing but Wood and Mountains of Snow. It is a very cold Climate, but plenty of Wood and Water, wild Fowl and Fiſh, for we had Fiſh every Day. We have just received the disagreeable news of the loss of the ship Hawke, Capt. Lightenstone, from this port, bound to London, on the 16th inst. off Black Beard island, about 25 miles to the southward of St. Catherine's. She left Tybee Monday the 12th; next day before noon, the wind blowing very hard at N. E. with a great sea, in the Gulph stream, she sprung her fore-top-mast, and tore the sail from the yard; at 3 in the afternoon, both pumps hardly sufficient to keep the ship free, split her main-top-sail; and the leak and gale increasing, her decks under water, the pumps making 20 inches an hour, and the people being very much fatigued and sickly, the Captain thought it advisable to bear away for Tybee; that night, their tiller having broke short off, they lay to under their fore-sail. Wednesday morning, expecting to founder, the carpenter fitted the old tiller so as to be of some service to them, and at 12 o'clock next day they saw the Light-house about 4 miles to the westward; but the wind being N. E. with a hard gale, the vessel drove several miles to leeward, and on Thursday morning last, endeavouring to get into Sapelo inlet, she got on a sand bank about 3 miles from Black Beard island. On Friday the 16th, at noon, the striking of the ship almost carried away her rudder, and tore up the principal plank in the cabbin; they then got out their yaul, which was immediately stove along-side with the breakers; and having only the long boat left, they luckily got ashore on the island. The vessel and cargo are entirely lost; Daniel Moore, Esq; Collector of South-Carolina, and Mr. Hall of this town, and all the people who were on board, are happily saved.

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 3.

BY the London Papers, we find that there are great Prospects of plentiful Crops this Year all over Great-Britain.

The General Assembly of this Province meets this Day, according to Adjournment.

The Sloop Dove, Hudson, Master, from Africa, and the Sloop Ranger, Philips, Master, from Barbados, both with Slaves, are arrived at Georgia.

Last Tuesday arrived here from England, his Majesty's Ship Fowey, of 20 Guns, commanded by Mark Robinson, Esq; who is stationed here for three Years, and to command in Chief all his Majesty's Ships from Virginia to the Bahama Islands. Another Ship is to come out for this Station, two for North-Carolina, one for Georgia, and one for St. Augustine; the last, we hear, is the Boneta, commanded by Captain James Wallace, who lately had the Tryal.

Thursday last arrived here the Brig Phœnix, Capt. Michael Dodsworth, from Pensacola: This is the Vessel which Mr. Bryan Foskey, one of our Pilots, boarded on the 11th ult. a few Days before the late Gale of Wind happened, and who could not get into Port in Time, as she had before, in another Gale, lost her Main-top-mast and most of her Sails.

In the Ship Canada, Capt. M'Leod, from London, who arrived here on Friday last, came Passenger, Mr. David Dott, Merchant.

The same Day Capt. Patrick Bower, arrived here in 14 Days from Pensacola, who informs us, That on his Passage between Cape Florida and one of the Bahama Keys, he came across Part of a Wreck, which he took to be the Quarter Deck of some Vessel, who probably suffered in the late Gale of Wind.

Captain Griffith, in a Sloop belonging to New-York, arrived at Pensacola a few Days before Capt. Bower sailed, after a tedious Passage of eleven Weeks: A Brig was also arrived there from Philadelphia, Master's Name unknown.

Charles Dudley, Esq; (Co-partner of Mr. John Dawson) is appointed Collector of his Majesty's Customs at Newport, Rhode-Island, in the Room of John Robinson, Esq; promoted, and made one of the Commissioners.

From several Circumstances, we have Reason to hope, that the Brigantine Hope, Robert Whitelock, Master, bound for London from this Port, (and who sailed on the 12th ult. in Company with the Brig Anne, Capt. Peter Seymour, for Pool) may not be looked upon as having foundered at Sea in the late hard Gale of Wind which happened on the 16th, 17th, and 18th past; as it appears from several of Captain Seymour's Men, that they only lost Sight of her in very thick Weather, and no Signal of Distress was made by Captain Whitelock.

The Brig St. Augustine Packet, Richard Savery, Master, from St. Augustine and Africa, is arrived at Georgia; as are also the Captains Porter and Skillings from Boston.

The Snow Aurora, Captain Fuller, from Corke and London, is arrived at St. Augustine.

A List of Criminals tried and found Guilty of capital Crimes, at the General Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, Assize and General Goal Delivery, which began to be holden on the 19th Day of October, before the Honourable ROBERT PRINGLE, RAWLINS LOWNDES, and DANIEL DOYLEY, Esqrs. Assistant Judges.——John Hogan, Horse-stealing.—Mark Nettles, Murder, and recommended to Mercy.—Lewis Chardon, Manslaughter.—Redman M'Mahon, Horse-stealing, and recommended to Mercy. Thomas Floyd, Murder.—Sylvester Stokes, and James Stokes, Murder.—Richard Rottenburg, jun. Horse-stealing, recommended to Mercy.—John Boone, Manslaughter.—John Shirley, Horse-stealing.—Jonathan Clark, alias Mc Connel, for stealing Negroes.

We hear that the Grand-Jury have found a Bill upon an Indictment prefered against DANIEL MOORE, Esq; for Extortion of Fees in his Office as Collector of the Customs for this Port.
